THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

APPELLATE SIDE

Bombay-32, the 22nd October 1966

No. P.0110/65—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 79 of the Provincial Insolvency Act (V of 1920), read with clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 5 of the Dadra and Nagar Haveli (Laws) Regulation 1963 (No. 6 of 1963) and of all other powers thereunto enabling, the High Court of Judicature at Bombay, with the previous sanction of the Administrator, Dadra and Nagar Haveli, makes the following rules for carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act in the territories of Dadra and Nagar Haveli :—

1. These rules may be called "The Dadra and Nagar Haveli Provincial Insolvency Rules, 1965", and shall apply to all proceedings under the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920, in any Court subordinate to the High Court of Judicature at Bombay in the territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli. They shall come into force immediately, and shall apply to all proceedings hereafter instituted.

2. The forms mentioned in these rules are the forms in the Schedule appended hereto and shall be used with such variations as circumstances may require.

3. (1) In these rules unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,

"The Act" means the Provincial Insolvency Act, V of 1920;

"The Court" includes a receiver when exercising the powers of the Court in accordance with section 80 of the Act;

"Receiver" means a receiver appointed by the Court under section 56(1) of the Act, and (except where the context otherwise requires) includes an Official Receiver;

"interim receiver" means a receiver appointed by the Court under section 20 of the Act;

"proved debt" means the claim of a creditor so far as it has been admitted by the Court.

(2) Save as otherwise provided all words and expressions used in these rules shall have the same meaning as is assigned to them in the Act.

Petitions

4. (1) Every insolvency petition shall be entered in the Register of Insolvency Petitions to be maintained in Form No. 19 in the appendix in all Courts exercising insolvency jurisdiction and shall be given a serial number in that register and all subsequent proceedings in the same matter shall bear the same number.

(2) Every petition, application, affidavit or order in any proceeding under the Act or under these rules shall be headed by a cause-title in Form No. 1 in the Appendix

5. (1) When an insolvency petition presented by a creditor is admitted, the creditor shall, within seven days thereafter, furnish copy or copies of the petition for service on the debtor or debtors, and in the case of petitions founded on matters mentioned in section 6(a), (b) and (c) of the Act, the creditor shall, within seven days after its admission furnish copy or copies thereof for service on transferee or transferees, also. The Chief Ministerial Officer of the Court shall sign the copy or copies if on examination he finds it or them to be correct.

(2) The copy or copies shall be served together with the notices of the order fixing the date for hearing the petition on the debtor or debtors and transferee or transferees or upon the person upon whom the Court orders notice to be served. Such notice may, in the discretion of the Court, require the debtor or debtors to file a schedule containing all the particulars mentioned in section 13(d) and (e) within such time not being less than ten days, from date of service of notice as the Court shall determine.

6. A debtor's petition shall be in Form No. 2 in the Appendix and a creditor's petition shall be in Form No. 5 in the Appendix.

7. If a debtor against whom an insolvency petition has been admitted dies before the hearing of the petition, the Court may order that notice of the order fixing the date for hearing the petition shall be served on his legal representative or on such other person as the Court may think fit in a manner provided for the service of summons.

Proof of Debts

8. (1) Unless otherwise ordered, all claims shall be proved by affidavit in Form No. 9 in the appendix in the manner provided in section 49 of the Act, provided that before admitting any claim the Court may call for further evidence.

(2) The affidavit may be made by the creditor or by some person authorised by him, provided that if the deponent is not the creditor, the affidavit shall state the deponent's authority and means of knowledge.

(3) As soon as may be after proof of any debt is tendered, the Court shall, by order in writing, admit the creditor's claim in whole or in part or reject it, provided that when a claim is rejected in whole or in part the order shall state briefly the reasons for the rejection.

(4) A copy of every order rejecting a claim, or admitting it in part only, shall be sent by the Court by registered post to the person making the claim within seven days from the date of the order.

9. In any case in which it shall appear from the debtor's statement that there are numerous claims for wages by workmen and others employed by the debtor, it shall be sufficient if one proof for all such claims is made either by the debtor, or by some other person on behalf of all such creditors. Such proof should be in Form No. 10 in the Appendix.

Schedule of Creditors

10. As soon as the schedule of creditors has been framed, a copy thereof, shall, if a receiver has been appointed, be supplied to him, and all subsequent entries and alterations made therein shall be communicated to the receiver, except in cases where the Official Receiver himself frames such schedule under section 80.

Schemes

11. (1) If a debtor submits a proposal under section 38(1) of the Act, the Court shall fix a date for the consideration of the proposal, and notice thereof together with a copy of the terms of the proposal shall be sent to every creditor who has proved.

(2) At the meeting for the consideration of the proposal the debtor shall be entitled to address the Court in person or by lawyer in support of the proposal, and every creditor who has proved shall be entitled in person or by the lawyer to question the debtor and address the Court.

Receivers

12. (1) Every receiver or interim receiver other than an Official Receiver shall be required to give such security as the Court thinks fit; provided that a Nazir, or other Government Officer who is appointed a receiver or interim receiver ex-officio, and who has already given security, that is still valid, for the due account of all money which shall come into his possession or control by reason of his office, shall not be required to give such security unless, owing to the extent of the assets likely to be realised, or for other special reasons, the Court thinks it desirable to do so.

(2) The Court shall not require an Official Receiver to give security in each case in which he acts under section 57(2) but he shall, previous to his admission, or within such further time as the Court may allow, give general security by entering into a recognizance with one or more sufficient sureties in Form No. 18 in the Appendix or by depositing Government Securities, in such sum as the High Court may fix in this behalf.

(3) Where a petition is referred to an Official Receiver for disposal in exercise of his powers under section 80, the Court ordinarily shall, when the debtor is the petitioner, and may, when a creditor is the petitioner, at the same time appoint him an interim receiver under section 20, and confer on him all the powers conferrable on a receiver under Order XL rule (1)(d) of the Civil Procedure Code. Such Official Receiver, upon making an order of adjudication, shall at once apply to the Court for an order appointing him Receiver for the property of the Insolvent under sections 56 and 57. The official Receiver should at the same time submit a draft order in Form No. 8 in the Appendix with the necessary modifications, for signature and sealing.

13. (1) The Court may remove or discharge any receiver other than an Official Receiver. Any receiver so removed or discharged, or any Official Receiver suspended or dismissed by the Administrator, shall unless the Court otherwise orders, deliver up any assets of the debtor in his hands and any books, accounts or other documents relating to the debtor's property which are in his possession or under his control to such person as the Court may direct.

(2) If an order of adjudication is annulled, the receiver, if any, shall unless the Court otherwise orders, deliver up any assets of the debtor in his hands and any books, accounts or other documents relating to the debtor's property which are in his possession or under his control to the debtor or to such other person as the Court may direct.

14. Every receiver or interim receiver shall be deemed for the purpose of the Act and of these rules to be an officer of the Court.

15. (1) Every application to the Court made by a receiver or an interim receiver shall be in writing.

(2) The Court may order that notice of any application by the receiver and of the date fixed for the bearing of the application shall be sent by registered post to all creditors who have proved.

16. (1) The remuneration of receivers other than Official Receivers shall be in such proportion to the amount of the dividends distributed as the Court may direct, provided that if over Rs. 25 it does not exceed five per centum of the amount of the dividends.

(2) When a receiver realizes the security of a secured creditor, the Court may direct additional remunerations to be paid to him with reference to the amount of work which he has done and the benefit resulting to the creditors.

(3) If a receiver other than the Official Receiver has been appointed in an insolvency in which the Court makes an order approving a proposal under section 39 of the Act, the remuneration to be paid to the receiver shall be fixed by the Court, and the order approving the proposal shall make provision for the payment of the remuneration and shall be subject to the payment thereof.

17. The receiver in making his report shall state whether in his opinion any of the facts mentioned in section 42, sub-section (1) of the Act exist, and if the debtor makes a proposal under section 38(1) of the Act, the receiver shall state in his report whether in his opinion the proposal is reasonable and is likely to benefit the general body of the creditors and shall state the reasons for his opinion.

18. If the Court directs, the debtor shall furnish the receiver or if a receiver has not been appointed, the Court, with a trading account, and an account showing all moneys and securities paid, disposed of or encumbered, or recovered by or from the debtor or on his account and his income and the source thereof for such period as the receiver or, if a receiver has not been appointed, the Court may direct: provided that the receiver shall not, without the previous sanction of the Court, direct the debtor to furnish accounts for more than two years before the date of the presentation of the insolvency petition.

19. (1) The receiver shall keep a cash book and such books and other papers as are necessary to give a correct view of his administration of the estate, and shall submit his accounts at such times and in such forms as the Court may direct. In the absence of a direction in that behalf, the receiver shall submit his accounts within six months of his appointment and will thereafter submit his accounts once in every three months. Such accounts shall be audited by such person or persons as the Court may direct. The costs of the audit shall be fixed by the Court and shall be paid out of the estate.

(2) Any creditor who has proved his debt, or the debtor, shall be entitled to obtain a copy of the Receiver's accounts or any part thereof relating to the estate, on payment of the legal fees therefor.

20. The receiver shall deposit all valuable securities for safe custody with the Nazir or, if so ordered by the Court, in any Bank specified by the Court in that behalf, and whenever a sum exceeding Rs. 500 shall stand to the credit of any one estate, the receiver shall give notice thereof to the Court, and, unless it shall appear that a dividend is about to be immediately declared, he shall obtain the Court's order to invest the same in a Promissory Note of the Government of India or in Post Office cash certificates.

Dividends

21. No dividend shall be distributed by a receiver without the previous sanction of the Court.

22. The amount of the dividend may, at the request and risk of the creditor, be transmitted to him by post.

Discharge

23. (1) An application for discharge shall not ordinarily be heard until after the schedule of creditors has been framed and the receiver has submitted his report. The receiver, if he is in a position to make it and has not already done so, shall file his report in Court not less than fourteen days before the date fixed for the hearing of the application.

(2) Every creditor who has proved shall be entitled in person or by lawyer to appear at the hearing and oppose the discharge: provided that he has served upon the insolvent and upon the receiver, if any, not less than seven days before the date fixed for the hearing a notice stating the ground of his opposition to the discharge.

(3) A creditor who has not served prescribed notices shall not, unless the Court otherwise directs, be permitted to oppose the discharge of the debtor; and a creditor who has served the prescribed notices shall not be permitted, unless the Court otherwise directs to oppose the discharge on any grounds not specified in the notice.

(4) At the hearing of the application the Court may hear any evidence which may be tendered by a creditor who has served the prescribed notices, or by the receiver and also any evidence which may be tendered on behalf of the debtor and shall examine the debtor, if necessary, for the purpose of explaining any evidence tendered and may hear the receiver, the debtor, in person or by lawyer, and any creditor, in person or by lawyer who has served the prescribed notice.

(5) Any case in which the debtor fails to apply for his discharge within the period allowed by the Court under section 27, shall be brought up for orders under section 43. If the Court has omitted to specify a period under section 27(1) and the debtor has not already applied for discharge the Court upon receipt of the receiver's report shall fix a period within which the debtor shall apply for an order of discharge. Notice of such period shall be given to the Receiver and the debtor and if on its expiry, the debtor has not applied accordingly, the case shall be brought up for orders under section 43.

Notices

24. (1) The notices to be given under sections 30 and 37(2) of the Act shall be published in the Gazette of India in English and, if the Court so directs, in any suitable newspaper in English, and copies of the notices in English shall be affixed to the notice-board of the Court.

(2) The notices to be given under sections 19(2), 38(1) and 14(1) of the Act, shall be published in any suitable newspaper in English and if the Court so directs, in the Gazette of India, and copies of the notices in English shall be affixed to the notice-board of the Court.

(3) Notice of the date fixed for the hearing of an insolvency petition under section 19(1) of the Act, shall be sent by the Court by registered post, if the petition is by the debtor, to all creditors, mentioned in the petition, and if the petition is by a creditor, to the debtor, not less than fourteen days before the said date.

(4) When in a creditor's petition it is alleged that the debtor has committed one or more of the acts of insolvency mentioned in clause (1), (b) or (c) of section 6, notice of the date fixed for hearing of the Insolvency petition under section 19(1) of the Act, shall also be served on the transferee or transferees or their successors in title by registered post or otherwise as directed by the address supplied by the petitioner.

(5) Notice of the date fixed for the consideration of a proposal under section 38(1) of the Act, shall be sent by the Court by registered post to all creditors who have tendered proof of their debts not less than fourteen days before the said date.

(6) Notice of the date fixed for the hearing of an application for discharge under section 41(1) of the Act, shall be despatched by the Court by registered post to all persons whose names have been entered in the schedule of creditors not less than fourteen days before the said date.

(7) The notice to be given under section 64, of the Act, shall be sent by the receiver by registered post to persons whose claims to be creditors have been notified but not proved not less than one calendar month before the limit of time fixed for proving claims.

(8) The notice to be given under section 33(3) of the Act, shall be served only on the debtor and on the creditors whose names appear in the schedule of creditors and may, if the Court so directs, be served on any or all such creditors by registered post.

(9) The Court may instead of or in addition to forwarding a notice by registered post under the foregoing rules cause it to be served in the manner prescribed for the service of summons.

(10) In addition to the prescribed methods of publication any notice may be published otherwise in such manner as the Court may direct, for instance, by affixing copies in the Court house or by beat of a drum in the village in which the debtor resides.

(11) It shall not be necessary to give notice of the date to which the hearing of a petition or of an application for discharge or the consideration of a proposal is adjourned.

Summary Administration

25. When an estate is ordered to be administered in a summary manner under section 74, of the Act, the provisions of the Act, and rules shall, subject to any special directions of the Court and in addition to the modifications contained in section 74, be modified as follows, namely :—

- (i) There shall be no advertisement of any proceedings in local paper.
- (ii) The petition and all subsequent proceedings shall be endorsed "Summary Case".
- (iii) The notice of the hearing of the petition to the creditors shall be in Form No. 17, in the Appendix.
- (iv) The Court shall examine the debtor as to his affairs but shall not be bound to call a meeting of creditors, but the creditors shall be entitled to be heard and to cross-examine the debtor.
- (v) The appointment of a receiver will generally not be necessary and the Court may act under section 58, of the Act, in order to reduce the cost of the proceedings.

Sale of immovable property of debtor

26. If no receiver is appointed and the Court, in exercise of its powers under section 58 of the Act, sells any immovable property of the debtor, the deed of sale of the said property shall be prepared by the purchaser at his own cost and shall (subject to any modifications the Court thinks necessary) be signed by the Presiding Officer of the Court.

Costs

27. (1) All proceedings under the Act down to and including the making of an order of adjudication shall be at the cost of the party prosecuting them; but when an order of adjudication has been made, the costs of the petitioning creditor shall be taxed and be payable out of the estate.

(2) Before making an order in an insolvency petition, presented by a debtor, the Court may require the debtor to deposit in Court a sum sufficient to cover the costs of sending the prescribed notices of the hearing of petition.

(3) No costs incurred by a debtor of, or incidental to, an application to approve a composition or scheme shall be allowed out of the estate, if the Court refuses to approve the composition or scheme.

(4) Whenever a creditor presents an insolvency petition he shall deposit in Court the sum of Rs. 150 to cover expenses. Such deposits shall be paid out of the first available assets realized.

Procedure where the Debtor is a Firm

28. (1) Where any notice, declaration, petition or other document requiring attestation is signed by a firm of creditors or debtors in the firm name, the partner signing for the firm shall also add his own signature, e.g., "Mohandas and Co., by Naginbhai Gandhi" a partner in the said firm".

(2) Any notice or petition for which personal service is necessary shall be deemed to be duly served on all the members of a firm if it is served at the principal place of business of the firm within the jurisdiction of the Court, on any one of the partners, or upon any person having at the time of service of the control or management of the partnership business there.

(3) The provisions of the last preceeding rule shall, so far as the nature of the case will admit, apply in the case of any person carrying on business within the jurisdiction in a name or style other than his own.

(4) Where a firm of debtors file an insolvency petition the same shall contain the names in full of the individual partners, and if such petition is signed in the firm name the petition shall be accompanied by an affidavit made by the partner who signs the petition showing that all the partners concur in the filing of the same.

(5) An adjudication order made against a firm shall operate as if it were an adjudication order made against each of the persons who at the date of the order is a partner in that firm.

(6) In cases of partnership the debtors shall submit a schedule of their partnership affairs, and each debtor shall submit a schedule of his separate affairs.

(7) The joint creditors, and each set of separate creditors, may severally accept compositions or schemes of arrangement. So far as circumstances will allow, a proposal accepted by joint creditors may be approved in the prescribed manner, notwithstanding that the proposals or proposal of some or one of the debtors made to their or his separate creditors may not be accepted.

(8) Where proposals for compositions or schemes are made by a firm, and by the partners therein individually, the proposals made to the joint creditors shall be considered and voted upon by them apart from every set of separate creditors; and the proposal made to each set of creditors shall be considered and voted upon by such separate set of creditors apart from all other creditors. Such proposals may vary in character and amount. Where a composition or scheme is approved, the adjudication order shall be annulled only so far as it relates to the estate the creditors of which have confirmed the composition or scheme.

(9) If any two or more of the members of a partnership constitute a separate and independent firm, the creditors of such last mentioned firm shall be deemed to be a separate set of creditors, and to be on the same footing as the separate creditors of any individual member of the firm. And when any surplus shall arise upon the administration of the assets of such separate or independent firm, the same shall be carried over to the separate estates of the partners in such separate and independent firm according to their respective rights therein.

Inspection of Proceedings

29. All insolvency proceedings may be inspected at such times and subject to such restrictions, as the Court may prescribe, by the receiver, the debtor, any creditor who has proved or any legal representative on their behalf.

Lawyers' Fees

30. The fees allowed to lawyers as costs in any proceedings under the Act shall be such as are allowed under the rules of the Court for a miscellaneous proceeding.

Appointment and procedure of the Committees of Inspection under section 67-A of the Provincial Insolvency Act.

31. (1) In any case in which the Court authorises the creditors to appoint a Committee of Inspection pursuant to the provisions of section 67A of the Act, the Court shall, by the order of adjudication or any subsequent order, fix a date for the holding of a meeting of the persons qualified to vote for the purpose of selecting the members of the Committee. A notice mentioning the date fixed shall be put up on the Notice Board of the Court.

(2) The Committee shall consist of not more than five, nor less than three, persons.

(3) The Committee shall meet at such time as they shall from time to time appoint, and failing such appointment, at least once a month, and the Receiver or any two members of the Committee may call a meeting as and when necessary.

(4) The Committee may act by a majority of members present at meeting, but shall not act unless a majority of the Committee is present at the meeting.

(5) Any member of the Committee may resign his office by notice in writing signed by him and delivered to the Receiver.

(6) If a member of a Committee becomes insolvent or is absent from five consecutive meetings of the Committee, his office shall thereupon become vacant.

(7) Any member of a Committee may be removed by a resolution passed at any meeting of the creditors of which seven days' notice has been given stating the object of the meeting.

(8) On a vacancy occurring in the office of a member of a Committee, the Receiver shall forthwith summon a meeting of creditors for the purpose of filling the vacancy, and the meeting may, by resolution, appoint another person to fill the vacancy.

(9) The continuing members of the Committee of Inspection provided there be not less than two such continuing members, may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, and when the number of members of Committee is for the time being less than five, the creditors may increase their number so that it does not exceed five.

(10) When a Committee has been appointed, the Receiver shall, in the administration of the property of the insolvent and in the distribution thereof amongst his creditors, have regard to any suggestions that the Committee may give by resolution. If the Receiver thinks that any suggestion of the Committee is not in the interests of the general body of creditors, he may report the matter to the Court, which will give such instructions as it may consider just and necessary.

(11) The Court shall afford an opportunity to the Committee of Inspection for being heard before orders are passed on any such report submitted by the Receiver.

(12) The Court may, in order to decide the matter in dispute, call a meeting of the general body of creditors and consider their views before arriving at a conclusion.

(13) The Receiver shall ordinarily act as the Secretary of the Committee and maintain a record of its proceedings in a bound register.

(14) No defect or irregularity in the appointment or selection of a member of the Committee of Inspection shall vitiate any act done by the Receiver in good faith.

(15) The Receiver shall afford all the members of the Committee both individually and collectively, reasonable facilities to examine at his office any of his records and registers during the working hours of the Court. The Receiver shall also give the Committee and its members any information which they require and give them every assistance and facility in the discharge of their functions.

(16) The Receiver shall, from time to time as ordered by the Court and not less than once in every quarter, submit to a member of the Committee appointed by the Committee to receive it an account of the estate duly verified.
